

NEW RECORDS FOR YOUR TALKING MACHINE

Lazaro, Stracciari, Baklanoff—three of the world's greatest and best—head the list of Columbia artists who make new records for November.

And what glorious records they are! Lazaro, fittingly called "the tenor of the generation," sings that magical burst of passion which comes in the first act of "Rigoletto"—the Duke's careless "Onesta o Onella," Baklanoff, greatest of Russian baritones, offers the lilting "Fishers" song from "Giselle," while Stracciari turns to his favorite opera for an aria of bare brilliance and powerful dramatic feeling—the "Pari Siano" or "Rigoletto." Truly here are three records no phonograph owner can afford to be without.

Then come the two sopranos whose voices were the sensations among last season's debuts—Lashanska and Barbara Maurel. The former sings a gem of pure melody, "Ma Curly Headed Baby," while her charming Alsatian songstress chooses "The Land of the Sky Blue Water," and "By the Waters of Minnetonka," for her record.

Oscar Seagle, pre-eminent among singers of "heart songs" is at his best when putting his wonderful voice into the rare, rich beauties of old ballads. This month he makes for Columbia a record with "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," on one side, and "Loch Lomond" on the other.

Another record by an American singer of international fame is the soul stirring "Freedom for All Forever," sung by Vernon Stiles. This great inspirational song calls for mighty vocal powers, but the qualities that have made Mr. Stiles famous. On the back is "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall," another time war song.

Clear as crystal, pure as the notes of a bird, are the exquisite silver tones of Howard Kopp's Xylophone. It is music that never loses its charm. For November, this talented musician plays "Orchids" and "Messenger Boy March."

Among the other instrumental records on Columbia's November list are "Funiculi, Funicula," the old familiar Neapolitan folk song, played by what do you think? Ukuleles! In the hands of the Hawaiian Trio, it is marvelous music.

Then there is a wonderful bit of chamber music by a Violin, Flute and Harp Trio—"Flower Song" and "Sweet Longing"—played with the rare beauty that only such instruments can achieve.

The famous Serbian Tambouritz Orchestra that is making such a stir in this country, makes another of those haunting, exotic records of Serbian waltzes which are proving so popular with phonograph owners and dancers alike.

Among the popular songs, Columbia has a number of the newest Broadway hits, both war songs and sentimental. One of the best, of course, is Irving Berlin's "How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning." Another is "Smiles," that wonderful harmony that is sweeping the country.

George Macfarlane, prince of vaudeville entertainers, makes his Columbia bow this month. This popular comedian sings in his own rich vein the song George Cohan wrote for him—"When You Come Back, and You Will Come Back." It's a record you want—be sure as you wouldn't miss hearing George himself when he came to town.

Henry Burr, and the Broadway Quartette in "Come Along Ma Honey," Sterling Trio in "Pickaninny Paradise," Charles Harrison's rich tenor in "Dear Little Boy of Mine," Hugh Donovan singing the great Allied war-cry, "One for All and All for One," with Arthur Fields giving his great "Victory," on the back; "The Yanks

SHE COULD NOT STAND OR WORK

GERMAN COURIER MEETS DELAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—A wireless dispatch from the German Nauen station picked up by the American naval towers says it has been officially explained in Berlin that the courier bearing the armistice terms was delayed in crossing the lines by an explosion on the German side, but that the terms could be expected at any hour.

The message follows: "It has been officially reported concerning the delay in transmission of the armistice terms:

"The courier commissioned to bring armistice conditions sent on the night of the 9th of November by wireless from Eiffel tower made the statement that he could not pass the lines since Germans had not ceased firing. He was probably led to this statement by circumstances that on the German side an ammunition depot had caught on fire and was blown up with continuous detonations. Courier had the circumstances explained to him by wireless and received directions immediately to cross the line. Arrival of armistice terms in Berlin can be expected at any hour."

LONDON, Saturday, Nov. 9.—The German armistice terms, the Daily Express says it understands, are even more stringent than those forecast October 31. Germany will be absolutely deprived, the newspaper adds, from further military power or action on land and sea and in the air.

Marshal Foch then read the terms in a loud voice, dwelling upon each word. The Germans were prepared by semi-official communications for the stipulations as a whole, but, hearing them set forth in detail, the concrete demands seemed to bring home to them for the first time full realization of the extent of the German defeat.

They made a few observations, merely pointing out material difficulties standing in the way of carrying out some quite secondary clauses. Then Erzberger asked for a suspension of hostilities in the interests of humanity. This request Marshal Foch flatly refused.

Courier Sent to Spa.

The delegates having obtained permission to send a courier to Spa and communicate with that place by wireless, Marshal Foch immediately wrote an account of the proceedings and sent them by an aide to Premier Clemenceau who received them at noon.

The German delegates are lodged in a country mansion at Rethondes, six miles east of Compiègne, and thirty miles from Marshal Foch's headquarters.

With the commander-in-chief at the time of the interview was Major General Maxim Weygand, his assistant, Vice Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, first lord of the British admiralty, and the United States representatives.

French opinion which is remarkably restrained and conservative, is unanimous in the view that Germany will capitulate between now and Monday.

Rethondes, where the German armistice delegates are living, is a small town on the north bank of the river Aisne, six miles east of Compiègne. It is between the forest of Laguel and the forest of Compiègne.

Within a radius of thirty miles of Rethondes are the railroad towns of Clermont, Montdidier, La Fere, Laon and several others not so well known. When the Germans drove southward from Noyon last June the French withdrew their line north of the Aisne in the region of Compiègne and the German lines are sixty-five miles away. The reigning Duke of Brunswick whose abdication is announced in a telegram from Brunswick by way of Berlin is Ernest Augustus, a son of the Duke of Cumberland. On May 24, 1913, he married Princess Victoria Louise, the only daughter of Emperor William. They have three sons, the eldest Ernest Augustus, whose right to the throne also has been renounced, being born March 18, 1914.

Driver of Auto Is Killed When the Machine Overturns

SALT LAKE, Nov. 11.—Pinned beneath the car when it ran over an embankment and turned turtle, about four miles west of Morgan Saturday night, C. F. Maddox, 44 years of age, residing at 740 Major avenue, was instantly killed, and his companion, the owner of the machine, Daniel Dougherty, was badly bruised.

Maddox, according to word received by his brother-in-law, C. E. Starna, 740 Major avenue, was driving the automobile from Evanston to Salt Lake, and lost control of the car as it rounded a curve on a high embankment.

Maddox was one of the oldest hick and taxicab drivers in the city. For several years he had a stand at 18 West Second South street. He had been working at a garage at Evanston for several months. Mr. Starna declared, and had decided to come to Salt Lake for a short visit. He was unmarried.

Mr. Starna will leave for Morgan this morning to have the body shipped to Salt Lake for burial. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

STENAY TAKEN BY AMERICANS

Germans Put Up Terrific Opposition But Lose—French Also Advance.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE MEUSE FRONT, Nov. 10.—General Pershing's troops this afternoon captured Stenay, on the east bank of the Meuse, notwithstanding terrific opposition.

French troops operating under the American command advanced at various points. The captured territory includes the German stronghold of Stenay, Grimaucourt, east of Verdun, and numerous villages and fortified positions in Lorraine.

Aroused by repeated German raids and local attacks during the last few nights west of the Moselle, the second American army in its initial attack cracked down on the Germans early this morning with artillery preparation lasting several hours. Then the infantry forged ahead, advancing at places for more than three miles. The Germans fought desperately, using their machine guns, but were forced to give ground almost everywhere along the entire front. Stenay, around which the Americans had been held for a week was stormed and taken in hand fighting.

WHO NEEDS THIS MEDICINE?

Only One Way to Know. Declares Writer.

Seeks to Educate Public the Value of Good Health.

Recommends Tonic Under Certain Conditions.

A well known physician is quoted as saying that "Careless habits, evil habits and ignorant habits result in fatalities whenever an epidemic disease appears in a community."

It should be well known that excesses and indulgences of whatever kind bring about a condition of low vitality. To have low vitality is to be partially sick, to remain so, gives free entry to fatal disease germs. It is duty and common sense to remove low vitality.

Do you catch cold too easily? Are you weak, irritable, nervous and worn out before the day is half over? Have you aches and pains of unknown origin? Are you too thin and seemingly "bloodless"? Do you have tremors and unsteady feet? Do you lack energy and ambition? Are you dependent without reason? Is your digestion faulty and your appetite fickle? Do you suffer with dreadful pains in the back of head and neck? Do you have shooting pains like neuralgia and rheumatism?

If any or all of these symptoms are yours then a tonic medicine like Cadomene Tablets should bring relief, health and strength if taken regularly with meals. Three grain Cadomene Tablets has often been called the "miracle medicine" because it is so quickly effective in restoring strength, rugged, "happy" vitality.

stated, are amply able to take care of all influenza patients.

Paul is Optimistic.
"The influenza epidemic is about cleaned out," said Dr. S. G. Paul, of the city health department, last evening. He admitted, however, that he had looked for a relapse in consequence of the bad weather last week. "A change for the worse naturally was expected Saturday and today," the health officer said, "but since it has not come I am free to say that with ordinary conditions prevailing and the observance of rigid precautions the scourge should be completely stamped out in the coming week."

"As far as I am informed, there is no change whatever in the influenza situation from the Saturday report," said Dr. B. Beatty, secretary of the state health board, last night. Dr. Beatty, however, intimated that conditions were satisfactory, so much so in fact that he had been able to observe Sunday as a day of rest.

Help for Dr. Beatty.

To assist the state health department in its fight against the scourge, which, according to Dr. Beatty, is still unconquered in many communities about the state, a physician is on the way from Sacramento, Cal., and should arrive in Salt Lake some time today. The doctor comes on orders from Surgeon General Rupert Blue, of the United States army, and by request of Dr. Beatty, who finds a need for several assistants in outlying districts to cope with the disease.

Self Needs Caution.

Having served the purpose for which it was instituted, serving of meals to needy sick and nurses attending influenza cases, the emergency diet kitchen at the community center on Regent street, has been discontinued. A decision was reached yesterday, when thirty meals were served to nurses and patients.

This does not mean, however, that all need for this sort of help has vanished with the decadence of the influenza epidemic. The emergency still exists, though in a much minor degree than at any other time in the past month. The suggestion, therefore, has been made that to meet this exigency until the contagion has passed away entirely householders take upon themselves the lightened burden. A few nurses, including recruits from teacher and store staffs, are still employed on serious cases. These workers must be provided for. Philanthropically inclined persons are asked to communicate with Red Cross headquarters daily this week and state how many nurses they can entertain at noonday luncheon, or how many lunches they can provide for patients.

The motor corps, directed by Miss Mary Mayne, will see that the nurses are taken to the home for the meal and returned to their posts afterwards, and will also deliver the meals to the sick. The work heretofore done by the kitchen will be in the hands of the home service department.

Diet Kitchen Opens.

The emergency diet kitchen opened about a month ago and since that date has served on an average of sixty meals a day to volunteer nurses and patients. Its staff was composed entirely of Salt Lake school teachers, and was also the staff operating the motor corps. In the latter department the young women have operated cars at their own expense, supplying gas and oil gratis. One nurse woman has spent $25 in gasoline alone. Expense of operating the kitchen, which has been in charge of Mrs. Leah Jennings, has been met through donations by merchants and citizens, together with voluntary reimbursements tendered by those who received aid in the emergency. Members of the faculty of the L. D. S. domestic science school each alternate day provided all dessert dishes for the meals served.

TO STAGE CAMPAIGN AGAINST RODENTS

At a meeting of the state livestock board, E. W. Nelson, chief of the bureau of biological survey, United States department of agriculture, will formulate the details of a state-wide campaign against rodents that are destructive of crops. The state board held a meeting on Saturday last at which the return visit of Mr. Nelson to Utah, on his way back to Washington from a tour of the west lasting several weeks, was read.

Several changes were made in the personnel of the board's working forces yesterday. The services of E. E. Williams, sheep inspector of Cedar City, with the board were terminated, after an investigation by Dr. R. W. Hogan, state livestock inspector, of allegations that Williams was failing to enforce the dipping order against ticks. This order was issued by the board some months ago.

State trappers and hunters, working in the campaign against predatory animals, were allowed increased pay in the "wildcat" cases. Hunters employed by the state now receiving $100 will receive $115 a month, and the pay of those receiving $90 a month was increased to $100.

The resignation of George E. Olson of Morgan as state sheep inspector was accepted. Appointments were approved of Dr. H. J. Vorhies of Mant and Dr. R. C. Swaberg of Gunnison as deputy state veterinarians.

Reports of the appraisals of three cows, killed as a result of the campaign against tuberculosis in dairy cattle, were received and passed on to the board.

Five of the eight new cases were received at the L. D. S. hospital, two at St. Mark's and one at the Holy Cross hospital. There are now 21 influenza patients at the Red Cross emergency hospital. Ten were discharged Saturday, and orders have been issued to accept no more unless there is a renewal of the epidemic. Other hospitals in Salt Lake, it is

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

By brewing at home is messy and out-of-date nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

YOUNG PEOPLE IN DEATH PACT

Magna Girl and Boy Commit Suicide and Leave Note—Girl Is War Bride.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 11.—Carrying out a death pact between the two, Bert Walker, a bootmaker, 24 years of age, residing at Magna, shot and killed 15-year-old Glenda Titcomb Smith, a war bride, and then, turning the weapon on himself, inflicted a wound from which he died eight hours later.

The tragedy occurred yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, in a rooming house at Magna, at which the couple had registered earlier in the morning. At 10 o'clock the landlady heard five shots, the sounds coming from the room occupied by the pair. She immediately notified Deputy Sheriff J. M. Maxwell, who broke down the door of the room. The girl, lying in the arms of Walker, still alive and fully conscious, tried to order the deputy out of the room, telling him there was nothing wrong. The deputy telephoned the coroner at once and notified the sheriff's office in Salt Lake.

Walker was taken to the St. Mark's hospital in the Utah Copper company ambulance, but gradually grew weaker and died at 6 o'clock last night. He made several attempts to tell officers from the sheriff's office the cause of the shooting, but was too weak to tell a connected story.

Three of the shots that were heard by the landlady entered the ceiling of the room, and had evidently been fired by Walker before he placed the gun over the heart of the girl, and then over his own. Deputy Maxwell found the gun under the body of the girl, and declared that Walker had probably pushed it there after shooting himself.

A note found in the room, and addressed to a Mrs. Dowley, confirmed the belief of the officers that the tragedy was the outcome of a suicide agreement. The note read:

Woman Leaves Note.

"I won't be to your little party today. We are going to end it all at 10 o'clock this morning. Please set my wrist watch at 10 o'clock, for that is the time we are going to blow off. There are some people here in Magna who know who wronged me and I have been after me and blaming me for it. So the best way out of it is for me and Bert to go together. Don't put any flowers on my grave. Don't put any on Bert's. Good-bye."

"GLENDIA." Friends of Mrs. Smith declared that the motive for the suicide was undoubtedly founded in her oft-repeated assertion that she and Walker were deeply in love with each other and neither could live without the other. Mrs. Smith had attended a party Sat-

MASONS TO HOLD A BIG CELEBRATION

It is intended, if the epidemic of influenza is past and gone to hold a great Masonic celebration at Salt Lake City on November 19, 20 and 21, when the thirty-second reunion of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite will assemble in that city.

The event will be of more than ordinary interest because the class to receive instruction at that time is to be known as the Christopher Diehl memorial class in honor of the late Christopher Diehl whose life and work were closely related to Masonry in the state of Utah from the very first days of its inception in Utah.

Degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second are to be conferred and Ogdan members who have received the thirty-second degree are to confer three degrees on the new class. The fourth degree will be under the direction of R. S. Joyce, the seventeenth under the direction of Rev. J. E. Carver, and the twenty-seventh under the direction of Frank A. Dodge.

Others who are scheduled to assist in the work are A. R. McIntyre, F. W. Easton, G. A. Jackson, George J. Kelly, Warren L. Wattis, Fred M. Nye, S. W. Wherry, Ralph E. Bristol, W. H. Harris, W. E. Nichols, R. D. Robbins and Henry Rosenbluth.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.
